Lady Dungeness Prof. returns many thanks to The Right Rev. Bishop Chase for his kind remem-brance of her, & sincerely rejoices at the success of the good cause. She has seen with pleasure many of his letters to Tracts for the S. to Lord Kenyon, but one gave her concern in telling the dangerous fall he got. She hopes he will never ride alone again, & that the good Scottishman continues to attend in these very dangerous long rides. — Lady R. will be glad to see the Rev. Mr. West & to hear more of the progress of affairs in Ohio than letters could carry, for she is greatly interested, & will always rejoice to hear of the good Bishop's prosperity & the success of his great undertaking.

The Right Rev. Bishop Doane
